ES-CON JAPAN Recognized with "B" Score for Climate Change Disclosure in 2025 CDP Assessment

ES-CON JAPAN Ltd. (Headquarters: Minato-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director and President: Takatoshi Ito) is pleased to announce that it has earned a "B" score for climate change transparency in the 2025 assessment by CDP, a global environmental non-profit organization.

A "B" score is the third-highest rating on the CDP scale and is categorized as the "Management Level". This designation recognizes that the company is "taking action on environmental risks and impacts" and effectively managing its climate-related initiatives.

Commitment to Sustainability and Transparency ES-CON JAPAN has formally expressed its support for the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) recommendations and is actively enhancing its disclosures based on this framework.

Under its "Long-term Vision 2030," the company has positioned "Sustainability Management" as one of the two key pillars of its strategy for sustainable growth, alongside its core business operations. ES-CON JAPAN remains committed to driving its business forward while contributing to the environment and local communities through proactive and transparent information disclosure.
